<https://asianstudies.hypotheses.org/>

TERMS OF ELIGIBILITY

For M1: The candidate must hold a nationally accredited bachelor's degree (180 ECTS after the baccalaureate) or another equivalent diploma.

For M2: The candidate must hold a first level certified master's degree (60 ECTS after the bachelor's degree) or another equivalent diploma.

For all candidates (M1 and M2), the master's degree is in priority for students who have followed a course in the Humanities and Social Sciences (SHS). In addition to a compulsory knowledge of French and English, partial or total mastery of an Asian vernacular language is strongly encouraged. The acquisition of this linguistic competence can be acquired during the master's course through a joint curriculum.

STEP 1: CHOOSING AN ADVISOR

The candidate must obtain the agreement of a Memoire Tutor/Advisor, who will agree to supervise his or her progress during the course of study. The Tutor must be a statutory member of one of the centers in Asian Studies associated with the program, belonging to the faculty of the Asian Studies major, or a professor of another accredited major.

It is the candidate's responsibility to find a tutor. To do so, he or she will contact by e-mail one (or several) tutor(s) among the members of the teaching faculty of the Asian Studies major. He or she may also be guided in the choice of a tutor by the directors or the temporary teaching and research attaché (ATER) of the specialization.

- For an M2 Admission Application: a CV, transcripts of bachelor's and master's degrees and a research project accompanied by a short bibliography

The potential tutor receives the candidate during an interview designed to evaluate his or her skills (especially linguistic) and motivations. If the tutor agrees to supervise the candidate, the candidate has him/her sign the Tutor Application form that can be downloaded from the EHESS website.
